English translation by Mika

Happiness is right here but can't see.
Growing from the soil, our eyes meet.
Seeing a new world and smile.
Everybody grows up by absorbing the ray and nutrition.
I want to grow happiness at my feet with you.
Maybe a beautiful flower will be bloom.
Tomorrow is exciting, isn't it.

Stuck out of a marsh and found you.
Following you little by little.
Step on the ground you are standing firmly and start walking to a future.
Want to feel happiness at my feet with you.
Maybe a large fruit will be borne eventually.
Tomorrow is exciting, isn't it.
Hop like a frog, high-five with a hand of a gecko.
Want to protect you with my shell, feeling good with wrapping around with tail.

Run around as much as I want and sweat.
Feel cozy in a cool cave.
I want to live normally someday by supporting and smiling at each other.
Let's keep a fertile land.
For a future happiness.

La la.
