

Piepha – Asuka's Song

2nd edition / Completed on 22 June 2019

Lyricist: Sai Y.

English translation by Mika

Make your eyes glued on my butterfly feather.

Let me rest on your shoulder always.

My magical power is gone since I fell in love with you.

I am a cute normal girl in front of you.

I will search for a happy flower with you, flying up high in the blue sky.

I want to go journey just with you forever and ever, riding the wind.

I am following your figure always with my hawk eyes.

Want you to make me warm in your arm sometimes.

Being with you gives me magical power.

I'm invincible up in the sky, I will protect you.

Jump up in the sky high, I will look to the bright future with you.

I will carry you forever, gentler than a horse does, beyond the cloud.

Run run run, I will keep on the journey just with you forever.

Carry you on my back, keep flying together towards the tomorrow.

Keep crossing the Sea of Light with you together with one heart.

Carry you on my back, keep flying together towards the tomorrow.

Keep crossing the Sea of Light with you together with one heart.
