English translation by Mika

Cool breeze tickles cheeks.
Feeling a little good today.
Poke your butt with my horn.
I wagged the tail and turned right to let you know to get on my back.
Go over the hill and mountains.
Run a thousand miles.
One jump to go over the large river.
Carry you faster than a cheetah, run, run, run.
Fun touring with you.

A little bright with the warm sunshine.
Feeling something good today.
Holding back your arm and winked at you by saying grab me tight because we jump.
Run freely on this vast field of grass.
Sudden bare rock is easy to handle.
Carrying you gently than a horse does, run, run, run.
Fun touring with you.

Want to go beyond a horizon.
What kind of scenery it would be, run, run, run.
Nothing is scary when I am with you.
Want to keep running forever and ever.
Future Run A Way I will create with you.
The adventure Far A Way by running throughout the world.
Clear A Way with you even for a harsh nature, run, run, run.
Only one adventure in the world.
There is a lot more hope while there is uncertainty.
Toward a blessed tomorrow with you together.
